InkSoft is seeking two qualified customer service & technical support team members to join our team in our Tempe office. InkSoft is the developer of a web-based online designer and ecommerce platform for printers. We are a fast growing company and are looking for individuals who are self-motivated, detail oriented, and have excellent communication skills.

Job Duties & Responsibilities:

- Respond to support requests & questions via our help desk ticketing system
- Following up with new users post sale
- Document and report issues to the development team

Requirements & Qualifications:

- Customer Service and/or Technical Support/Help Desk experience
- Experience with web-based software a plus

How to Apply:

Get our attention. Send us a YouTube video and introduce yourself. We are serious about finding the right people for our team.
